

Eloise Lemon earned dual master degrees in Nursing and Health Administration from the University of Phoenix. Throughout the more than 30 years tenure, Eloise has held clinical research positions at Case Western Reserve University, University Hospitals of Cleveland, Rainbow Babies and Children's Hospital in Cleveland, Ohio and Akron Children's Hospital in Akron, Ohio. She has been responsible for the completion of more than 800 pediatric clinical studies providing a strong foundation for establishing performance, quality and training standards required for conducting clinical research studies. Mrs. Lemon has conducted her own research and is named as a co-author on several published papers describing research project findings. Mrs. Lemon has served as an independent consultant and project manager as well as the external liaison to many pharmaceutical companies, clinical research organizations (CRO), clinical research administrators (CRA), Federal Drug Administration (FDA), and other study sponsors, project managers, and medical directors.