

Ms. Lillian Prince is the Founder and Executive Director of Biostatistics and Research Awareness Initiatives Network, Inc. (BRAIN). She teaches Business Statistics in the Management Department of the College of Business Administration at The University of Akron and in the Management and Information Systems Department at Kent State University Stark. After over 15 years of teaching Math to K-16 students, she made a career change to the field of Statistics. She holds master's degrees in Secondary Education and in Statistics from The University of Akron, she served in statistical roles at Case Western Reserve University in Cleveland, Akron Children's Hospital, and the Department of Veterans Affairs in Jamaica Plain, Massachusetts. Ms. Prince is currently a doctoral student in the College of Public Health at Kent State University.