

Taba Aleem is a manager in External Affairs with Planned Parenthood of Greater Ohio. Her work involves client recruitment through connecting with community partners and by strengthening relationships with groups and coalitions, especially in underserved communities in northeast Ohio. Her background includes teaching human sexuality, training peer educators, mentoring 100+ teens in pregnancy prevention groups, and teaching HIV and STD prevention education at the Summit County Juvenile Detention Center. At Planned Parenthood, she also works with volunteer groups known as Community Leadership Councils (CLC) in Akron, Canton, and Cleveland. Members of the CLCs have served Planned Parenthood as former board members and community leaders.

Taba is a graduate of Hunter College in NYC with a degree in History and Women's Studies and holds a Master's in Secondary Education from the University of Akron.
